

Easily Access More Than 725 Labs Through a Single Service

NextGen® Share Diagnostic Hub

Communicate with labs efficiently and cost-effectively

NextGen Share Diagnostic Hub provides NextGen® Enterprise clients with seamless access to more than 725 regional lab facilities, including Quest Diagnostics, Labcorp, Exact Sciences, and many specialty lab facilities nationwide. Electronic orders and results can be exchanged directly through the Orders Module in the NextGen Enterprise workflow.

A refreshing alternative to traditional point-to-point interface connections, NextGen Share Diagnostic Hub can be easily self-installed through the NextGen Share Portal website. You can avoid the need for a lengthy implementation and eliminate costs for exchanging electronic orders and results within NextGen Enterprise.

Eliminate interface costs

This service boosts efficiency for practices of all sizes that routinely communicate with laboratory facilities. Specialty practices that place orders and receive results less frequently can also find relief from the high cost of traditional interfaces.

“We currently use NextGen Share Diagnostic Hub and love it. It has removed the need to fill out paperwork and faxing. It works great.”

Dee Hawley, Director of Technology
East Jordan Family Health Center

With a growing number of providers continuing to join, Diagnostic Hub is revolutionizing the way diagnostic data is shared, ensuring efficiency and improved care for all.
